International Car Free Day is celebrated in places all around the world. It is a day when people discover what it is like to live without cars and motor vehicles filling their streets.

Imagine, what would you and your friends do in the streets if there was no danger from traffic and you were allowed to do whatever you liked?

You can enter the Chichester Car Free Day competition in one of two ways

- Draw a picture of what you would like to see or do on a car free day, in the box on the other side of this sheet
- Write a story about a day without any motor-vehicle traffic.

Prizes include: A family rover bus ticket that could take you and your family anywhere in West Sussex: Bognor Picturedrome cinema tickets and Westgate vouchers.

Your stories and pictures may be: Printed in the Chichester Post

Newspaper: Published on the <http://carfreechi.org.uk/> website: Made into banners and posters displayed on Car Free Day 22nd September 2019.

Please send in your entries to Kelly Wickham at the Chichester Post (kelly.wickham@sussexpost.co.uk Post Newspapers Ltd, 63 London Road Bognor Regis, PO21 1DF) by Friday 28th June.
